About Me

Pooja is a creative professional working across photography and copywriting, with a strong ability to translate ideas into compelling visual and written narratives. Known for her conceptual thinking and originality, she brings fresh perspectives and thoughtful execution to every project. Her work reflects a balance of aesthetic sensibility, storytelling, and innovative ideas.

23

Her practice moves fluidly between image and language, where ideas take shape through photography and words. Drawn to concept-led storytelling, Pooja treats each project as a space for exploration, building narratives that are intuitive, intentional, and quietly bold.

Pooja Amle

Creative

As a creative individual, Pooja Amle approaches projects as evolving ideas—shaping concepts through writing, imagery, and iteration to create work that is intentional, expressive, and audience-aware.

Work Experience

As a creative practitioner, Pooja Amle develops concept-driven projects from initial idea through execution, focusing on clarity, narrative, and visual coherence to ensure each piece communicates effectively with its intended audience.

CANNES-ASSOCIATED ARTIST — BTS & CREATIVE PHOTOGRAPHY

Worked as a behind-the-scenes and creative photographer for an artist associated with the Cannes circuit, documenting production processes, live moments, and visual narratives surrounding the artist's work. Focused on capturing candid storytelling, atmosphere, and creative direction through still imagery.

FILMFOOL — COMMUNITY MANAGER & COPYWRITER

Developed and managed weekly promotional campaigns for independent film screenings, creating audience-facing copy, social media communication, and engagement strategies around cinema culture and community participation. Worked across campaign ideation, event promotion, and audience interaction to build visibility and recurring attendance for screenings.
